Visitors to MusicTorch are looking for Christian music that not only glorifies the Lord through purpose, but also through quality. MusicTorch represents Christian music that breaks the mold of rhythm, melody and style. We look for artists that demonstrate an abundance of expression both in their lyrics and in distinctive music characteristics.

MusicPear is a free resource that makes it easy to find Christian alternatives to mainstream music. By searching with a mainstream artist, users immediately see Christian artists that are similar in sound and link directly to their website. All artist results are contributed and ranked by users, so the website is always growing and improving.
